

Uprooted: Japanese American Farm Labor Camps During World War II

1942 Russell Lee FSA Photographs: Recreation

OCHC Lee #038 Leaving the labor camp for a visit into Rupert, Idaho.

Rupert, Idaho. Former Civilian Conservation Corps camp now under Farm Security Administration management. Japanese Americans leaving camp for a visit to town. Library of Congress, Prints & Photographs Division, FSA-OWI Collection, LC-USF34-073890-D.

Sponsored by Philip H. G. Wikelund and Gloria D. Brown

OCHC Lee #039 A badminton game at the Garrison's Corner camp near Nyssa, Oregon.

Nyssa, Oregon. Farm Security Administration mobile camp. Japanese Americans play badminton at the camp. Library of Congress, Prints & Photographs Division, FSA-OWI Collection, LC-USF33-013309-M1.

OCHC Lee #040 Baseball game at Nyssa High School with laborers from the Garrison's Corner camp.

Nyssa, Oregon. Japanese Americans playing baseball. They do farm work, live at the Farm Security Administration mobile camp, and use the town ballfield on Sundays when they come in a supervised group. Library of Congress, Prints & Photographs Division, FSA-OWI Collection, LC-USF34-073586-D.

OCHC Lee #041 Swimmers near Rupert, Idaho.

Rupert, Idaho. Former Civilian Conservation Corps camp now under Farm Security Administration management. Japanese American farm workers swimming. Library of Congress, Prints & Photographs Division, FSA-OWI Collection, LC-USF34-073919-E.

OCHC Lee #042 Sign at the Garrison's Corner camp for a dance at the Hashitani family farm near Nyssa, Oregon.

Nyssa, Oregon. Sign for the dance which was given by a local Japanese farmer for the evacuated Japanese American farm workers who live at the Farm Security Administration mobile camp. Library of Congress, Prints & Photographs Division, FSA-OWI Collection, LC-USF34-073688-E.

Sponsored by Dr. Bob and Janet Komoto in memory of Roy Hashitani

OCHC Lee #043 Child swinging at the camp near Shelley, Idaho.

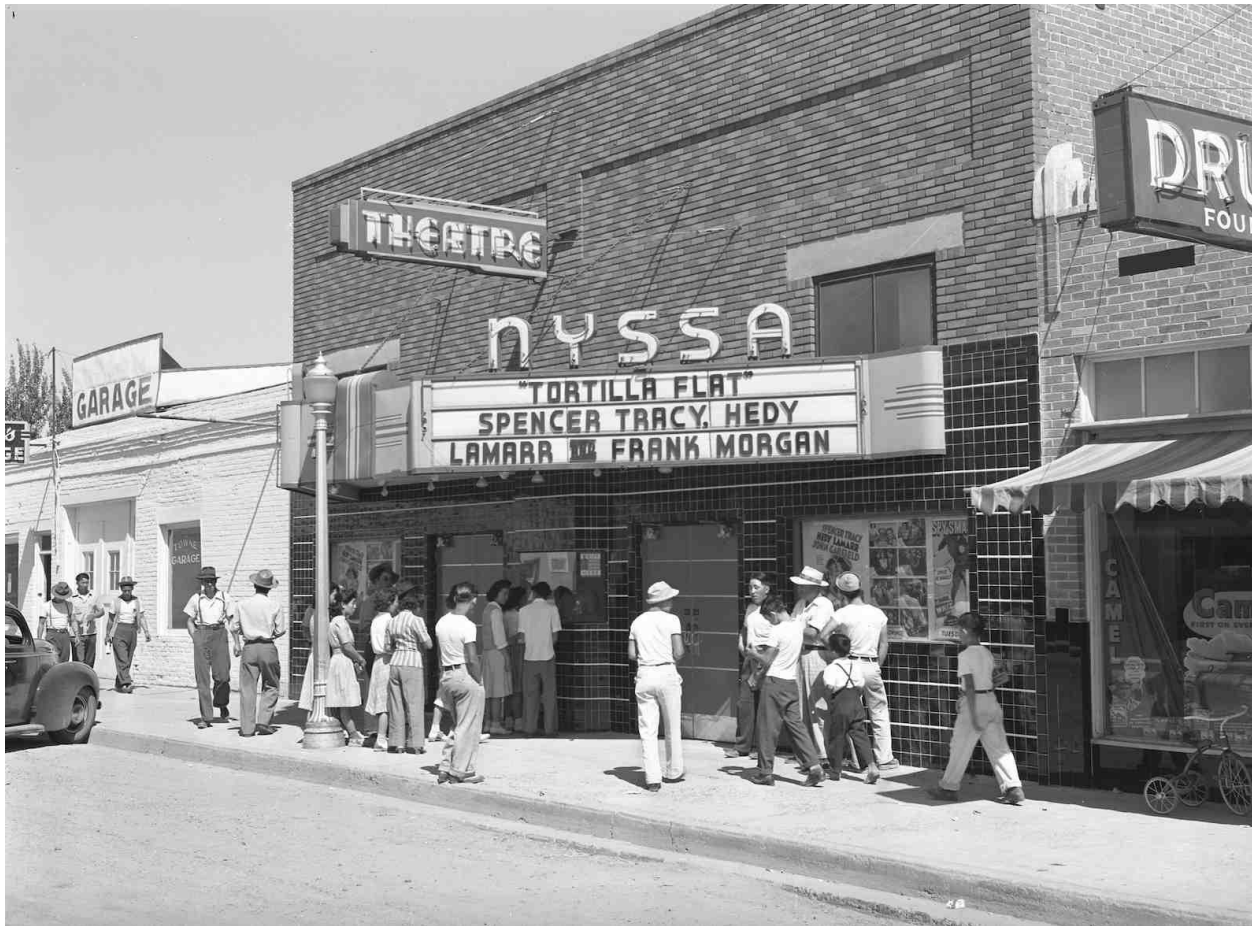

Shelley, Idaho. Farm Security Administration mobile camp. Japanese child who lives with his parents at the camp. Library of Congress, Prints & Photographs Division, FSA-OWI Collection, LC-USF34-073798-D.

OCHC Lee #044 Girls living in the Garrison's Corner camp near Nyssa, Oregon blow bubbles. Among the girls are the Morishita sisters: Anne Morishita Enoki (left), Nancy Morishita Shigeno (second from left), and Kay Morishita Yamaguchi (right).

Nyssa, Oregon. Farm Security Administration mobile camp. Japanese American children. Library of Congress, Prints & Photographs Division, FSA-OWI Collection, LC-USF34-073607-D.

Lola Maria Marquez Milholland and Theresa Marquez honor Portland Public Schools' Japanese Magnet Program, celebrating its 25th anniversary in 2014

OCHC Lee #045 Attending a picture show in Nyssa, Oregon.

Nyssa, Oregon. Japanese Americans who live at the Farm Security Administration mobile camp attend a special run picture show on Sunday. Library of Congress, Prints & Photographs Division, FSA-OWI Collection, LC-USF34-073663-D.