

Sarah Winnemucca – Paiute Chief and Prophet
The first published Native American author west of the Rockies
Life Among the Piutes: Their Wrongs and Claims – 1883
Discovering Oregon Originals – April 2005

From left: Sarah Winnemucca; Row 1 – Chief Winnemucca, Sarah's father; Mary Peabody (Mrs. Horace) Mann, Sarah's editor; Lewis H. Hopkins, Sarah's last husband; Row 2 – W.V. Rinehart, the Winnemuccas' antagonist at Malheur Reservation; S.B. Parrish, Rinehart's predecessor; Sarah and the Northern Paiute roamed broadly (Malheur Reservation originally was 1,778,560 acres; today Burns Paiute Reservation is 770 acres)